

QUALITY POLICY STATEMENT

Findlay Irvine is a UK company providing innovative electro-mechanical and software products primarily for the Transport Industries.

From its incorporation in 1960, Findlay Irvine Ltd. has enjoyed a reputation for developing innovative products and for working with clients to provide cost effective practical solutions.

Our facilities near Edinburgh comprises three dedicated buildings consisting of our Research and Development Building, Administration Building and our Production and Service Building. Most design projects are undertaken in-house but we have projects with local establishments including Edinburgh and Heriot Watt Universities. Our design staff includes degree qualified Electronic, Mechanical, Mathematics and Software engineers and we pride ourselves in being able to take new designs from concept through to finished products.

Our Production facilities include a fully CNC equipped machine shop and electronic assembly facilities with automatic pick and place machine and reflow oven for surface mount electronic components. Together with our service department and sales and marketing team, Findlay Irvine can offer customers an end-to-end solution for your technical problems.

In support of our aims and strategic direction and to demonstrate our commitment to quality, we operate an Integrated Business Management System in accordance with the requirements BS EN ISO 9001:2015, the requirements of our customers and in accordance with our compliance obligations.

We will review the risks and opportunities to our business and set objectives against which our performance can be measured to identify opportunities for continual improvement of the Integrated Management System and enhancing customer satisfaction levels.

This policy will be reviewed annually as part of the management review process, to ensure its continued relevance and adequacy.

It is part of the company's training programme to ensure that this policy statement is briefed, understood and implemented at all levels within the company.

This policy will be available to interested parties via the Findlay Irvine Website.
